Jason:

Apparently Noah advised the Bankruptcy Trustee that Pamela was going to surrender the house, which is not true. I spoke with the real estate agent (Joe Witt) who has contacted Pamela saying he has been instructed by the Trustee to sell the house. This would clearly be a violation of the CR2A agreement which awarded the house to Pamela. Additionally, the Trustee needs to know that the house is under water and is not in default. I have not received any paperwork for the bankruptcy and neither has my client.

I left you a phone message advising that I want to have a telephone conversation with you about the verbiage in the final paperwork. My paralegal called the bailiff and advised that the papers had gone back and forth but we had some fine tuning that remained to see if we could extend the 45 day window. I left you my home number (253) 927-7857. My cell is (253) 222-1193. I am leaving for an appointment at 2:30 p.m. Please call me when you get a chance.

Sincerely,

Pamela,

FYI:

I was in bankruptcy court last Thursday. There is a Federal Trustee that Administrates the proceeding. His job was to verify my information and make sure I understood everything that I signed. One of the questions was what I am going to do with the house. I told him that I am surrendering it. He asked if you were in agreement with this. I told him that it was my understanding that you'd be filing bankruptcy too and letting the house go, but that I didn't want to answer definitively for you. He requested contact information and I gave him your email address. If he hasn't emailed you yet, he will be soon.
